Dear Lester,

Please find attached my letter dated August 13, 2023 in response to your email below. I have also attached my August 9, 2023 letter which is referenced in my August 13, 2023 letter.

Per your request, I haven't included your co-counsel in this communication. However, I suggest you share the letter with them.

Best regards,

Michael S. Neustel

Subject: RE: Response to Lester Wallace's August 7, 2023 Email

Dear Michael,

I asked that we not involve others. I ask that we have an actual respectful conversation, in good faith. See the mention in my email of "just you and me?" Please reconsider. Please do not copy others on your response to this email, or write a letter. I am trying not to say anything to defend myself, but rather I am trying to open the door so that we can get past this.

Please reconsider and let's talk. Below is my telephone number.

Respectfully,

Lester

Subject: Discussion

Dear Michael,

I would like to request that you and I make a good faith attempt as professionals to discuss this matter and to get past it. I suggest a personal telephone conversation. Just you and me. Each of us can listen to the other, and as professionals and attorneys we can attempt to stop the cycles of unfortunate interactions. I think we owe it to the Court to make the attempt. Please indicate a time. I can call you and we can discuss. Maybe we can resolve this.

Please advise.

Respectfully,

Lester

Subject: RE: July 6 meet and confer

Dear Lester,

I was taken aback by your suggestion that I might be recording our conversations. It seems that your ad hominem attacks know no bounds. As I have stated several times now, we are not recording conversations with you.

Though we would prefer to streamline the process and have only one attorney during meet-and-confer calls to be more cost-effective for our client, your behavior during these discussions, such as using derogatory terms like “fool” and “stupid” to refer to me, necessitates the presence of at least two attorneys on any call involving you. This measure ensures that we can accurately document statements made by you.

Best regards,

Michael Neustel

Dear Michael,

I am just now reading your declaration (Dkt. 176).

You have numerous long direct quotes.

If you made a recording, we request that you send us copy.

Lester
